-------------	---------------	--------------	---------------

Chile's Congress handed President Kast a major legislative victory by approving nearly all remaining changes to his sweeping tax and economic overhaul, marking the region's clearest structural reform advance in weeks. Elsewhere, routine cabinet reshuffles in Argentina and Mexico and a modest public-debt dip in Brazil framed a day of mostly incremental governance moves.

The Power Board

Fourteen nations, ranked by power — with today's move and the thirty-day trend.

SINCE YESTERDAY The Power Desk added new lines for the Kast government in Chile following fast-tracked parliamentary approval of its core economic package. Other nations held steady, with no new defaults, coups, or elections recorded.

WHY THIS IS A MAP, NOT A LIST Power is volatile — it builds for months and can vanish in a week. So the Power Map is built to move: every score carries today's shift and a thirty-day trend, and this page tracks who is gaining and losing over the week and month.
